ARE WE DEMOCRATIC?

FOLLOWING the Convention recently held in this State, in which the best talent of the country engaged in expounding Democratic doctrines, one who is devoted to the principles there exhibited, has written to me, expressing his pride that he can claim affiliation with a party whose principles are founded upon equity and justice to the rights of men. Surely there is not a Democrat in our grand old Commonwealth, whose spirit has not been strengthened by the proceedings of that Convention and the integrity it placed before the public. I hope next August. In view of the facts it would seem, at first thought, that every man should be a Democrat whether he had previously been one in whole or in part, but a careful survey of our county campaign and the methods used by disaffected individuals in attempting to circumvent the feelings of the party would soon convince him that in studying the motives of designing men to doubt the unity of the country Democracy, Various rumors are caught floating on the political sea, cast with the sole intention of disturbing political harmony, and all coming from a source that cannot be known. From what I know from experience that all efforts at straightening out the party will be futile, that party in helplessness and ashamed of its own administration, is ready to aid any movement, so it anti-Democratic. The present campaign has furnished them a fertile field in which to display their belligerencies. The man who believes in the candidate proposed on an anti-Democratic ticket who claims to be able to get an office by a Democratic vote. That Republicans ever aim to support such a candidate is uncertain, but the obvious intention is to disrupt the Democratic party by wild assertions and schemes that will lead off those that they have no right to make for their personal interests. However, this may be it is a good time for every Democrat to subject himself to a thorough self examination. If we have supported Democratic principles because they were right, they are right still. They have never changed and are unchangeable. If the party is corrupt, let us leave it. If a man claims to be for the party because his Democratic record, the Democrats of Breckinridge county have been too loyal in the past to stray off after an ignis fatua. The reports of the growing popularity of the anti-Democratic party are ephemeral based upon the idle conjectures of disappointed individuals, and have plenty of time to die and be forgotten before next August.

The public opinion extended to Hon. John Young Brown by the people of Henderson, Owensboro and other points in his section, one night last week, irrespective of party, was a deserving tribute to an exceedingly popular and talented man. The Hon. John Y. B. has the personal magnetism to swell Kentucky's Democratic majority by very handsome figures in August.

There may be some reason for the conjecture that they said they would support the nominee for the Legislature, but the election is sometime off, and when they have heard both the candidates on the stump and weighed the question fairly, we think the number that will fall off will be few.

PERHAPS it is clear enough out the postmaster in Blue Grass, who can't decide the Presidential election. It is not so. Democratic postmasters remain in that whole section, and by the beginning of the next campaign there will be a clean sweep made.

SECRETARY Blaine is to be moved to his summer home at Bar Harbor in the State of Maine. He is ill and his mind, it is said, is gradually failing him. It is feared that he will never be able to resume his public duties at Washington.

It is conceded at Washington that the cruise of the Charleston in search of the Alabama has been fruitless, and that the cargo of the insurgent vessel has either been landed or transferred to the Esmeralda.

The man who quits his party because he can't get an office every time he wants it, isn't worth a copper to it, and the sooner he gets out the better.

DEMOCRATS should make an aggressive campaign in every voting place in the county and put none but good men on the ballot.

Mrs. WORLEY, the lady evangelist, of Grayson county, has been preaching a series of sermons in Owensboro this past week.

Tan great World's Fair to be held at Chicago, is to be entirely shut off from the view of the small boy by being enclosed with a high board fence with no holes in it.

The Hardin county grand jury has indicted Richard Jones, a prominent Baptist preacher, in that locality for having three wives.

The State's monument to the late Gov. Luke P. Blackburn, was unveiled and dedicated at Frankfort last Wednesday with impressive ceremonies.

W. Scott Morrison has decided to make the race for the Legislature in Hancock. Mr. Morrison is a substantial citizen and lawyer and a died in the wool Republican. He will be the nominee of this party.

The Kentucky Press Association meets at Paducah to-morrow.

THE NEW CONSTITUTION.

A Call for a Conference of the Opponents of the Instrument.

The following call has been circulated and numerously signed in almost every county in the State:

At the ensuing August election the voters of Kentucky will vote for or against the proposed new constitution. It is the most important that the voters in deciding this question, shall have all the information which can be given through the press and by public discussion. To this end a conference of those who are opposed to the adoption of the proposed new constitution is thought by many to be advisable, and the city of Lexington is proposed as a proper time and place for said conference.

Mr. Logan Pace went to Owensboro Monday to act as special bailiff during the session of the United States Court.

Does it pay to advertise? Go ask the merchants who patronize these columns. Several have told us that during the past year they have sold more goods than ever before. The news reaches two thousand feet.

A number of persons in the courthouse last Saturday night and decided to have a big celebration here on the Fourth of July. An attractive program will be arranged for the occasion. One of the features will be a balloon ascension. The railroad has consented to bring the people here under reduced rates.

The stockholders in the gas well met at the Bank last Saturday night for the purpose of raising funds to put the well to a depth of twelve hundred feet. The present depth is one thousand feet and it was decided not to abandon it under any circumstances.

Judge Miller and his family Wednesday, June 1st, will be here to stay for a trip to Texas in July. The Judge has four sons living in that state all of whom are doing well. The elder one Luther, who left home when quite a boy, has since accumulated quite a fortune. When the Judge goes out among them, he is treated right royally, and when he returns looks younger and better than when he left.

The people of this town and vicinity are missing the annual round of school exhibitions which they so much enjoyed during the days of Prof. Crabbe here. It is true many did not like Crabbe's rule of requiring everybody to pay a small admission fee to his exhibits, but still they went and enjoyed them. Prof. Shacklett has never given up school exhibition for that reason he says.

That they require too much of the students time from their legitimate studies. This may be a valid reason, but all want an exhibition next year anyhow.

THY SAY.

That Mug Severs is sold.

That B. F. Beard sold out in a hurry.

That the negroes will not vote for Barnes.

That the gas well is to put down twelve hundred feet.

That Judge Board takes the cake for spinning a good yarn.

That the chairs in the City Hall ought to have cushions in 'em.

That young Phelps comes down here often than he used to.

That there is no use to kick against the object of the railroad tax.

That W. C. P. Breckinridge will be here on the Fourth of July.

That the White Caps have flogged two or three fellows over about Custer.

That the interior of the M. E. church will show up beautifully when finished.

That the County Judge should, upon the court house painted, and that too p. d. g. stand.

That the jailor's rock pile is a terror to the cows that break the law and come this way.

That Hensley & Jolly are going to run the whoop-whoop business along the L. & N. & W. next year.

That for a week's engagement the Theatrical Company did a pretty fair business.

That there is a real good seat here for Cunningham's Bottom, where she expects to begin teaching.

Mrs. C. M. McGlothlin and Miss Minnie Hoyle, Union Star, spent last Friday on their farm gathering cherries.

Miss Fannie Brashears and Lem Gilliland, who have been in residence at Mrs. Annie Frymire's last Saturday, have been visiting Mrs. F. Frymire in her home in Hardinsburg last Saturday. Miss Bell is quite a charming young lady and we regret her departure very much.

When in need of mowing machines, mowers, repair and hay rakes can be had at R. E. Moorman.

The race for the Legislature in Meade is getting hot. Last Monday the candidates had their little say at Breckinridge with the exception of the withdrawal of Mr. Omphal in favor of Mr. Willard to beat Gus Richardson. It seems that the independent Democrats and Republicans have entered into a combination to down the Hon. Gus, in the primary. If this can't beat him with Willard in the primary they can do it with Dr. John Harbin as a Repub. in the primary.

Rev. Chandler, of Falls of Rough, occupied the Baptist pulpit Sunday. His preaching was very much liked by every one.
